Believe Death Toll In South Amboy Blast 26

Large Number Of Those Believed Dead Are Still Missing

SOUTH AMBOY, N. J., May 22.—(INS)—A chain of land mine explosions and a phosphorous fire which sent a dense column of smoke 3,000 feet in the air caused new terrors yesterday in the blast-torn city of South Amboy.

The blaze flared up on the grounds of the wrecked American Agricultural Chemical Company plant and shortly thereafter more than 100 mines scattered about the waterfront area in Friday night's munitions blast began exploding.

Citizens turned today to the giant task of rehabilitation as a Coast Guard board of inquiry meets in New York to resume its probe into the cause of the blast which caused a minimum of 26 dead, 22 of them missing, and injured some 350.

Waterfront Destroyed
Mine sweeping activities by technicians from Fort Devens, Mass., were hampered yesterday by the fire and explosion. However, there was no substantial new damage, chiefly because the waterfront area already had been virtually destroyed in Friday's earth-shaking blast.

Four bodies were found Friday night and Saturday and despite a thorough search yesterday for additional dead a state police spokesman said "not even a button was found."

The fire which detonated the deadly "Bouncing Betty" anti-personnel mines started in 100 drums of white phosphorous. Insurance companies, following a survey, listed the damage at $7,500,000. This was based on the probable insured loss. No estimate was given for losses not covered by insurance.

Another sign of the times. Note that a family reunion date has been announced for early June. Hundreds of such reunions will be held during the summer.

Porch sitting got away to a pre-season start at some homes in the local area on Sunday. Also noted was one out-of-doors picnic event on Sunday afternoon, with the group seated on the ground for the picnic lunch.

Construction work was in progress on a number of homes in this locality on Sunday.

Intersection of the Sharon-Mercer road and New Castle-Greenville highways at Hickory, in Mercer county, is now marked by a traffic light.

Sunday afternoon developed an early season pest for auto drivers. Some sort of flies or bugs plastered windshields effectively for drivers.

With the meeting at the Cathedral and the carnival on Boyles field on Saturday evening, North hill streets for many blocks were lined with parked autos during the evening.

Local residents wonder if it is worthwhile to try to have a garden, especially since so many dogs are allowed to run loose. All dogs are to be tied up, according to law.

Many colorful tulips present a beautiful picture in the yard at the northeastern corner of Highland and Sheridan avenues.

Mrs. A. B. Cartwright, County Line street brings a cooling bit of news as she reports to Pa News that since the first snowfall last November 18, it has snowed 42 times in this district.

Coal Industry Condition To Be Presented

WASHINGTON, May 22.—(INS)—Mine operators and labor spokesmen go to Capitol Hill today to tell about the plight of the slowed-down coal industry.

They are expected to point to foreign oil imports as the major cause of spreading unemployment in the coal fields.

Thomas Kennedy, United Mine Workers vice president, and Dan T. Buckley of the National Coal Association are scheduled to urge the senate labor committee to conduct a quick probe of why coal production has slowed to a walk.

Before the committee is the proposal of Democratic Sens. Neely, W. Va., and Elbert Thomas, Utah, for a one-month investigation of "increasing unemployment in the coal, silver, zinc, lead and railroad industries."

While both coal management and labor are opposed to President Truman's proposal for a commission to treat the coal business as "a sick industry"—or any other move that could possibly suggest nationalization—they indicated they would approve the Neely-Thomas resolution.

Over 100,000 Forced To Flee At Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Man., May 22.—(INS)—"Horrible" was the word used by Canada's prime minister Louis St. Laurent, to describe his reactions to the most disastrous flood in the country's history as waters of the Red river receded slowly today.

Six deaths of old-age evacuees were reported over the week end in other cities where they had been removed from the flood area. Most of the victims were elderly patients removed from Winnipeg hospitals, and their deaths may have been attributed to the flood.

A Winnipeg man, reported to have been driven from his flooded home, stabbed his wife and then committed suicide last Saturday. The woman was not seriously wounded.

Vast Destruction
The prime minister saw the scenes of vast destruction from the air aboard a giant North Star airliner that flew up the inundated Red river valley from Ottawa Sunday.

On arrival at Winnipeg, St. Laurent took a 25-mile boat, Jeep and walking tour through the devastated area and agreed that the flood was as bad as it had been described.

Approximately 106,000 persons mostly women and children, have fled from Winnipeg since the raging Red river spilled over its banks two weeks ago, but it was estimated that at least 10,000 residents have returned to their homes the past week.

A 60-year-old porter died today in a three-alarm fire which raged thru a rubber processing plant of the Firestone Tire & Rubber company in Akron.

Officials of the company said that Robert Collier, the porter, died of suffocation. A few other employees suffered minor burns on the fingers.

A sprinkler system extinguished the flames, which started on the second floor of the five-story building about 5:30 a. m. (EDT) but while workers were replacing the sprinkler caps, the blaze spread up again around 7 a. m. and spread to the third floor. The other floors were damaged only by water.

The brick and concrete structure, called the Xylos plant, has two wings, but the fire was confined to just one of them.

Ambulances and the Summit county coroner were summoned to the plant shortly after the fire broke out in a rubber dryer.

Firestone officials said that the plant will be closed for two or three days until it can be re-wired.

Death Toll In Mine Disaster In Germany 67

GELSENKIRCHEN, Germany, May 22.—(INS)—The death toll in the Rothhausen mine disaster at Gelsenkirchen stood at 67 today but authorities feared it would go higher.

Many of the miners are in critical condition with injuries received in Saturday's pre-dawn explosion.

Sixty-one diggers were killed immediately in the blast and resulting fire, which raged for nearly 20 hours.

Second Disaster
The tragedy—the second one to hit the same pit since 1943, when 33 lives were snuffed out—was the second biggest in the Ruhr since the end of the war. Some 400 died four years ago at Kamen in the greatest mine disaster in German history.

Gelsenkirchen was plunged into deep mourning and black flags were hoisted at the Belgian-owned mine where families stood silently waiting for word of the fate of their relatives.

Condolences from both the British and French high commissions were wired to the pit and gifts of German and foreign money poured into the mine offices.

Renew Search For Girl Despite Two Suicide Notes

PITTSBURGH, May 22.—(INS)—Ten police officers renewed a search today for a 15-year-old Pittsburgh school girl who left two suicide notes when she fled her home.

Police said they found Mary Keener's dress and underclothing yesterday about a half mile from her home near the Monongahela river. But they theorized the clothing may have been "planted" by friends of the girl to throw searchers off the trail.

Inspector Lawrence J. Maloney, who put ten men on the case, said there were no signs of violence and no indication that the girl entered the river.

The girl's parents found her notes after she left home last Friday. She wrote she was going "to the river to drown."

Half Ancient Inca Capital Is Destroyed

Other Towns Also Suffer Big Losses In Disturbance

By EMILIO DELBOY
(L. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LIMA, Peru, May 22.—A 12-second earthquake which demolished half of the ancient Inca capital of Cuzco, Peru, caused a loss of life estimated today as high as 150.

Reports on the toll of injured ranged up to "several thousand." A report on the toll of injured ranged up to "several thousand."

A report put out by the government radio in Lima placed the toll at "over 150 dead."

The Cuzco radio said 38 bodies are in the morgue, "many more" await identification and "probably several more still are buried under the debris."

In addition to Cuzco, which has a population of 50,000, the nearby town of Sans Sebastian, with about 5,000 residents, suffered "horrible damages."

Appeals For Aid
The Cuzco radio appealed for blood plasma and anti-tetanus and anti-typhus serum to combat epidemics which may arise from the disruption of the city's water supply.

Lima radio said the supplies will be flown today and dropped by parachute.

Throughout the night, rescue workers toiled by torchlight to uncover additional bodies. The temblor knocked out the city's electricity.

Those who survived huddled in the streets, shivering in the cold, rather than return to homes weakened by the quake.

About 15,000 residents of Cuzco were at the football stadium at the time of the earthquake and escaped the fate of victims trapped in buildings.

Famous Buildings Fall
President Manuel Odria took over direction of aid to the stricken area and ten military planes stood by ready to fly medical supplies and other aid to the disaster area.

Many famous buildings in the storied two-mile-high capital of ancient Inca civilization, fell in ruins. Most of the structures were built by the Spanish conquistadores.

Surviving the destruction were the modern tourists' hotel and the enormous stone slabs of ancient Inca civilization which have weathered other quakes through the centuries.

Russia To Stage Another U.N. Walk
LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., May 22.—(INS)—Russia is expected to stage its 30th walkout from a major U. N. agency today despite the reported assurances by Premier Stalin to Secretary General Trygve Lie that the Soviet Union will soon drop the boycott.

The Soviet walk is due in the 12-nation population commission, of which Nationalist China as well as the satellite Ukraine are members. Only a drastic reversal of policy could keep the Soviet delegates in their seats.

The assurances given Lie by Stalin during their recent 90-minute conference on the cold war are understood to concern Russia's general position and membership in the United Nations, not the immediate status.

Back to the daily routine, back to the folks at home, it's nice at times to gas the car and take some time out to roam. It's fun to visit some other spots, and meet old friends you have known, and ask of their health and their jobs and lives, and how the youngsters have grown. But it's equally nice when you turn the car and head for your own home town, for its there your roots are, it's there you would be whenever the chips are down. Yes, it's nice to visit around the state, it's pleasant to be away, but the real bang comes when you get back home, it's seventy-eight today.

Crown Queen At Local Hospital

New Castle Hospital Sodalists Have Event

Impressive May crowning ceremonies, dedicated to the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, were conducted Sunday afternoon by Sodalists of the New Castle Hospital School of Nursing.

Held on the hospital lawn on such a beautiful spring day, the Sodality used the theme of "To Jesus Through Mary". Lovely bouquets of calla lilies and snapdragons flanked the newly-erected May altar.

Rev. Fr. John O'Rourke, chaplain of the New Castle hospital, presided during the services and led in the recitation of the rosary during the procession from the nurses' home to the May altar on the lawn.

"On This Day O Beautiful Mother" and "Come Holy Ghost" were sung by the Sodalists.

Delivers Sermon

Rev. Fr. C. H. Becker, pastor of St. Joseph's church, delivered an inspiring sermon. He spoke of the great love that the Son of God had for His mother, and he compared it to the love that each individual has for his mother—a sentiment that we admire in all persons. Father Becker urged the frequent recitation of the rosary in daily life and also in family life.

Father O'Rourke crowned the May queen, Julia Wolanin, president of the student society, during the hymn Mother Beloved. She in turn placed a delicate crown of fresh flowers upon the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary while the hymn, "Bring Flowers of the Fair-est," was sung.

The queen's court was composed of seniors, Dolores DeCarbo and Henrietta Maciarello; juniors, Geraldine Ciaella, Mary Jane Frenkel, Frances Dougherty and Catherine Snitzer.

Little Carol Ann Gardner and Marilyn Snitzer were the train bearers, and Raymond Alekulewicz and Dennis Lombardo were the crown bearers.

Act of Consecration was recited, followed by the presentation of the floral rosary. "Holy God We Praise Thy Name," sung by the assembly, and the recessional brought the services to a close.

Immediately after the ceremonies, an informal reception for Sodalists and friends was held in the nurses home. Tea was served buffet style from a beautifully appointed table centered with a bouquet of fresh flowers. Mrs. Jessie Stenger and Mrs. William Strawbridge poured, while Mrs. John P. Prioletti was hostess. They are members of the woman's board of the New Castle hospital.

The music for the afternoon was under the direction of Mrs. Frank Colao.

Delaware Chapter Honored

The Ritchie Lawrie, Jr., shield was presented to the Delaware County Chapter by Past President Ritchie Lawrie, Jr., and remarks were made during the evening by the retiring president of the state society, Clarence T. Shoch, of Allentown; who in turn introduced the new president, Mr. Blackburn, who spoke briefly.

General Groves related many of the events which surrounded the discovery and perfection of the atomic bomb during the war, some of them of an humorous nature.

He then charged that control of the bomb is now in the hands of an Atomic Energy Commission composed of five men, none of whom are scientists and know nothing about its nature. They in turn have over them a joint congressional committee. As originally set up, this committee was supposed to be non-political, but has since ceased to be. These men are all fine men, he stated, but nice men are not enough when the safety of the United States depends on their ability.

U. S. Loses Initiative

The United States, he charged has given up the initiative to the Russians, because we do not want another war, and as a result, Russia is in a position today to start a war whenever she wants to. Our strength is being dissipated and everything is being done to destroy the confidence of our people.

The idea has been spread abroad

Born in Jefferson county, March 27, 1868, she was a daughter of John and Catherine Shrainger Richards. She was a member of Epworth Methodist church.

Survivors are: two children, Mrs. D. H. Warnock, New Castle, and James S. Stewart, Akron, O.; four brothers, Frank Richards, Mississippi, Melborn Richards, Akron, Ohio, and Martin Richards, both of Jefferson county, eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Dr. J. Paul Graham will officiate at funeral services Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the Howard L. Reynolds funeral home, Adams street, where friends may call today from 7 to 9 p.m. and Tuesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m. Burial will take place in Castle View Burial Park.

Cashier Robbed Of $7,500 In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, May 22.—(INS)—A Duquesne Light company cashier was robbed today of $7,500, which she was carrying to a Pittsburgh bank.

The gunman also took $1,600 in checks from Miss Margaret Kinkadee of Pittsburgh in the Quick East Liberty district robbery.

She was accompanied on the two-block walk by a company porter, Sam Morgan.

Police said that the gunman "jostled" Miss Kinkadee while she was walking along the street and snatched a package containing the money from her hands.

Morgan made a grab for the bandit, who, then, pulled a pistol from one of his pockets.

The bandit did not use the gun. He broke loose from Morgan, ran to a parked red coupe and fled. Miss Kinkadee, meanwhile, screamed an alarm.

The district was treated to a week end show of aerial power as the windup of armed forces week arrived. Saturday a contingent of some 18 planes flew over the city and on Sunday, another group of 20 planes put on a show as they traveled over the area. Many private planes were also observed in the air.

Lawns about the district are growing at an unprecedented pace local mowers find. No sooner has the back breaking job been completed on some of the larger lawns when the mowers have to resume their task in many cases. The dampness of the soil underneath accounts for the rapid growth of the grass and other vegetation.

Reveal Communism Threats

Intense preoccupation of the western democracies over the encroaching tide of communism in the Pacific was underlined in surprise fashion today.

It came in the form of a statement issued by the United States embassy in London on behalf of Secretary of State Dean Acheson just as the Cunard-White Star liner Britannic pulled out of the Mersey river at Liverpool to carry him back to the United States.

Acheson's statement was notable for a reserved enthusiasm over results of the North Atlantic defense pact conference in London.

Democracies Stand Firm

He expressed conviction that this meeting had served to prove to Soviet Russia and any other potential aggressor that the western democracies stand firm and united in their citadel, which might well someday bear the brunt of a "peace by enforcement."

But his most revealing disclosure—virtually overlooked in the official communiqués that followed the meetings—referred to the stress that had been placed during the meetings, Indo-China and Thailand.

All, as well as Great Britain's faraway Malaya, are threatened by communism in the wake of Mao Tse-tung's victories in China.

The same applies to Iran and Afghanistan, plus the mystery land of Tibet and perhaps India and Pakistan themselves if the red onrush amidst poverty and chaos is not brought to a halt.

It was obvious from the secretary's statement that Great Britain and France, while superficially occupied with the immediate problems of Europe and the economic wherewithal to defend it, felt obliged to place great emphasis on their age-old imperial problems.

Brought Heavy Pressure

The Netherlands also must have brought heavy pressure to bear. The Dutch have accepted the independence granted to the East Indies with cooperative grace.

But they nevertheless have a feeling—difficult to submerge—that this great loss of empire is traceable directly to the allied "four freedoms" principal of the second world war and it is not necessarily the best solution for humanity as a whole.

United States policy regarding the far east is an admittedly difficult issue.

In all probabilities, nothing official will be said regarding the strange "duality" of Anglo-American doctrine under which Great Britain has recognized communist China and the United States refuses to do so.

British Foreign Secretary Bevin may or may not have introduced the issue in his talks with Acheson. He probably refrained from trespassing on this delicate ground. The state department in Washington and the foreign office in London are in sufficiently close liaison on such major issues as to render any "man-to-man" discussion unnecessary.

Important Place

But Indo-China must have had a sizeably important place on the agenda.

While he was in Paris prior to the London conference, Acheson authorized announcement to the effect that the American government had earmarked an approximately 30 million dollars of President Truman's special far east anti-communist fund for the aid of former Emperor Bao Dai's regime which is holding out against the reds.

The British say officially that they do not expect any such United States assistance in safeguarding Singapore and the strategic Malayan peninsula against incursion by guerrilla forces generally supposed to be subsidized and supported by Moscow.

But it would be ridiculous to assume that Britain would reject a helping hand in this beleaguered region and Acheson's statement seems to make it quite clear that the United States government regards what remains of the free far east as a province of responsibility.

The North Atlantic conference was held in London and its decisions were reached there. The mere geographic locale placed all possible emphasis upon western Europe and possible Soviet aggrandizement in the west.

Dean Acheson's statement reassured doubting hearts in the far eastern reaches of the globe that their fight for independence and will for democratic liberty have not been cast into the discard.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan
(By International News Service)

An Iowa chicken born with four legs is Brannan's problem. He does not know whether to extend a stable price support or let her stand on her own four feet.

Meanwhile if you care for turkey, the government has 97 million pounds which was a little too high-priced to eat last Christmas but just right to tax you for.

It has got to be disposed of by the end of the month and the only answer looks like a June first Thanksgiving.

If a summer-Thanksgiving idea confuses the president someone could remind him there was a time we had two in the winter season.

For a couple of years we didn't know which Thursday was Thanksgiving and the only people who didn't care were those who couldn't afford to eat on Thursday.

The next regular Thanksgiving has already been spoke for. We've been told in advance whom to thank for all that is good in America.

EASY WINDOW WASHING

Windows may be kept sparkling with a minimum of effort if a sponge and a can of ammonia and water solution. Apply the liquid to a pane with the sponge and wipe it off with a few quick strokes of the sponge.

Among the questions asked of a couple desiring a baby are: Why do you want to adopt a child? How long have you been married? Have you good mental and physical health? Are you of favorable age? Can you provide fair economic stability? Are you of the same religious faith as that of the natural mother? The most satisfactory answer to the first question is, "Because we love children and want to share their love and security without expecting gratitude in return."

When the community provides adequate adoptive services the following benefits are derived:

The mother does not need to try to "sell her baby." She can feel highly certain that her baby will be reared by people who will provide love and security for her child. Having her baby securely placed enables the mother to return to the community and to live a normal life unfettered by the ties of a child, a constant reminder of an early mistake. A homeless child is provided with a proper home. Adoptive parents may learn all possible about the child, thus eliminating many risks. "Adoptors receive only those children released by the natural mothers. They know they are not stealing the child from the mother."

Bible Thought

No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and His love is perfected in us. Hereby know we that we dwell in Him, and He in us, because He hath given us of His Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world. John 4:12, 13, 14.

Colorado Contest In Sound Tradition

DENVER, Colo., May 22.—McCarthyism has very quickly come into use as a convenient word to describe the politics of character assassination and smear. In some respects it is a new phenomenon in American political life.

It bears more resemblance to the degraded politics of the European dictatorships than to anything we have known here. While the familiar trade names of liberal (or progressive) and conservative have worn thin from abuse and misuse, we have until recent years kept pretty much within that range in America.

Contest Shaping Up

Here in Colorado a contest is shaping up that is happily within the sound tradition of the American past. The voters seem likely to get a choice between two men who stand for different philosophies of government. And the use of the irrelevant smear and the demagogic character assault should be confined to the minimum of the fanatic fringe.

On the one hand is Senator Eugene D. Millikin, a Republican, seeking re-election. He is a distinguished and able gentleman of the old school, a conservative in the familiar meaning of that word.

Although Millikin made a comfortable fortune as a lawyer, he has never fallen victim to the arrogance of wealth that afflicts some self-made men. As he has demonstrated several times in the Senate, he has a strong sense of the freedoms guaranteed to the individual within the framework of the Constitution.

Opposing Millikin will be Representative John A. Carroll who is serving his second term in the House from Denver. Carroll subscribes to much more than the Truman welfare program. He has made a name for himself on the floor of the House with his drive and his alertness.

Have Intelligence-Integrity Both men have intelligence and integrity. The hopeful prospect—

They Say

EDINBURGH—The Winston Churchill: "I hope the unties now being established among all western democracies and the Atlantic powers will ward off the terrors and unspeakable miseries of a third world war."

WASHINGTON—Chairman W. Stuart Symington of the National Securities Board: "Already we are at war against, not only with new weapons of propaganda, espionage, subversion and sabotage, but also with shooting when the latter is considered necessary."

NEW YORK—Yukio Ozaki, 91, of the Japanese parliament: "The greatest single problem facing Japan today is the firm establishment of democracy."

WASHINGTON—Sen. McCarthy (R Wis.): "If the thousands of perverts are removed from the government payroll, a very serious blow will be dealt to communist espionage activities in our government."

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Feel rather chipper . . . yes, even after overcoming the shock that another birthday had arrived and we are now well on another year . . . That birthday we remember was celebrated last week . . . but we really had a reason to recall the event, for no other reason than to have an opportunity to tell you folks about a little present that arrived from the white coast of the United States . . . rather a surprise to be sure . . . After all, we have been raising that section of the nation . . . especially concerning the weather out there . . . But evidently they don't care . . . for this little present from my brother was a very thoughtful item.

For the first time in a good many years . . . we are sporting a four-in-hand necktie . . . It has been our custom to wear the soft shaggy bow . . . But right now the bow is out and the long tie is filling the gap at the collar line. This particular tie that arrived from the "Farmers Market" is maroon in color . . . with a blue and white pattern down the middle. Very chic . . . but if you cover up one half of the pattern, low and behold it spells out a name . . . in this case the name is MESEALL . . . very tricky.

Now maybe things like ties with names thereon isn't new to you . . . to be sure we are not making that a point . . . the fact is that such an item for a present means that the sender didn't run out and just grab something at the last moment . . . This tie with the name thereon, meant that some thought was given to the matter of remembering this particular nativity day.

It's just a little item . . . but an item that we all should remember . . . It's nice to be remembered. And we all should slow down a little and do a little remembering . . . It makes life so much more pleasant and we mentioned this little experience of ours and you can do with it what you want. Thanks for listening.

Great Game Of Politics

Should Give Us the Facts

WASHINGTON, May 22. DESPITE Senator McCarthy's lack of proof, the recklessness of his charges, the injurious impression he has created abroad, the violence of the denials and the terrific hammering he has taken from press and radio commentators—despite all this, public sentiment is still said to be in his favor. Last week a newspaper poll in Minnesota showed 49 per cent pro McCarthy, 21 per cent anti. A similar trend in their districts is reported by members of Congress.

CHEAP a creature as Senator McCarthy may be and pure as some of those upon whom he has cast aspersions are and little evidence as he has produced, the fact remains that neither the unstated denunciation of him nor his patent stupidity have swept away suspicions widely held concerning the State Department. As one observer recently said: "An awful lot of people who take no stock in McCarthy still believe he threw a curved ball in the dark and hit somebody. They do not think McCarthy has the goods but they do think something is wrong."

SEVERAL sound reasons for this belief are given. One, of course, is the Hiss case. It is clearly recalled that up to the final verdict in the second trial, practically the same journalistic and Administration forces, now engaged in tearing McCarthy to pieces, were concentrated upon eulogizing Mr. Hiss and assailing Mr. Chambers as a liar and villain. Two Supreme Court Justices appeared as character witnesses for the former and many other eminent men testified in his behalf. Yet hardly any one now denies that Mr. Chambers spoke the truth. It is further recalled that Mr. Acheson took a similar stand and has never publicly acknowledged anything wrong in the department.

CONSIDERING these things, it is not surprising there are many who remain unconvinced by the vociferous denials, the angry denunciations and heated name calling. In addition, there are two other reasons for the popular feeling. One is the revelation by the State Department itself that it had dismissed 91 homosexuals as bad security risks. This, observers report, has revolted people more than anything else—more even than if McCarthy had proven his charges. They are convinced that the 91 by no means were all—and are shocked. The second reason for continued suspicion is the obvious truth that the Administration is resisting disclosure of the full facts.

PRACTICALLY everybody will agree that this is a deplorable state of affairs. The problem is how to improve it. Recently there has been a significant demand from important newspapers, anything but favorable to McCarthy, that the Tydings Committee reopen the so-called Amerasia case and "go to the bottom of it." Senator Tydings has said that is exactly what he intends to do. The argument is that until this is done, the suspicions which so many people now harbor that something rotten is being hidden will not abate. A mere statement of the known Amerasia facts is enough to show the necessity of an impartial and determined probe. Amerasia is the name of a magazine connected with the Institute of Pacific Relations. It has been charged by Professor Budenz and others that Amerasia was financed, dominated and directed by Communists. Nearly six years ago, when our country was at war, acting on FBI evidence, six persons were arrested, hundreds of State Department documents were seized in the Amerasia office, many of them containing topsecret military evidence. There were sensational headlines, but none of the documents was ever disclosed to the public.

SOON after the arrest the Justice Department began to act in an exceedingly strange way. The case was taken from one grand jury and turned over to another. The Government changed its charge from conspiracy to violate the espionage act by stealing confidential Government documents to mere conspiracy to remove Government records illegally. Three of the six men arrested were dismissed and three indicted on the new charge. Of the three indicted, one was permitted to plead guilty and fined $2,500. Another who did not contest the charge was fined $500. And the charge was dismissed against the third. That ended official action in this case, described by the New York World-Telegram as "one of the weirdest in the whole history of American criminal jurisprudence."

ITS CLOSING did not end public suspicion. Clearly a major crime against the nation had been committed and, though practically caught with the goods, no one has been really punished. It is natural that many Americans should be deeply disturbed. They are entitled to know why the Government changed its charge, why those who pleaded guilty were let off with small fines, why the indictments were dismissed against others, what was in the documents and what became of them. Also, was all the available evidence presented by the Government? It is true a House subcommittee in 1946 looked into the case but its cursory report did not allay suspicion because it left so many strange events unexplained and so many pertinent questions unanswered. The hope is that the Tydings committee will leave nothing unexplained or unanswered, no matter who may be hurt. It is further hoped that instead of resisting, covering up and taking the attitude as in the Hiss case that no one is guilty and it is all a lot of lies and dirty politics, the White House and State Department will cooperate with the Tydings committee in this difficult but vital job. Looking At Life

By ERIC BRANDEIS

To the pessimists who claim that there never was such a terrible time as this, it may be interesting to know what was found in the "time capsule" taken recently from the cornerstone of the old New York College of Physicians and Surgeons.

The building, sixty-four years old, is being wrecked to make room for a parking lot. The college itself moved much farther uptown.

The removing of the time capsule was made quite a ceremony and George W. Vanderbilt, grandnephew of the man who had put it into the cornerstone, took it out.

The participants in the affair chuckled at life in New York in 1886, as shown by the newspapers that had been deposited in the lead box.

Dr. Willard Rappleye, dean of the Columbia Medical Faculty, who spoke at the ceremony, said that the last sixty-four years had seen more progress than the preceding 10,000 years.

Let us look at the progress. An advertisement in one of the newspapers of that time, announced an overcoat sale with the garments marked down from $7 to $3.75. Strong, serviceable shoes were offered at $2 a pair.

The price range for steamship passage to Europe was $60 to $110. A five-room apartment in a nice

New York residential block was for rent at $31 a month. A similar apartment in the same block today brings $200 a month—only it isn't available. It is rented on a three-year lease.

Here are a few items found in the capsule that would certainly make you think you were reading today's papers and not those of April 24, 1886.

On page one of that date is a story about "An Insane Mother's Crime." She attacked her four children with an axe and took poison.

A strike on the Lake Shore Railroad had just been settled in Chicago; and another strike, against the Third Avenue Railroad Company in New York, was still going on.

A heading on the sports page said "The Brooklyn Win Again." Score: Brooklyn 9, Baltimore 3. (A sidelight: "The game was witnessed by 6,110 people, at least 300 of that number being women." THAT does not sound like today.)

The Chicago Cubs won the pennant that year.

Personally I don't see where Dr. Rappleye got that idea of the last sixty-four years having seen more progress than the 10,000 preceding years.

JUST A SUGGESTION

I know nothing of business, of losses and gains, But why do great industries throw away brains?

When good men retire, as they must, is it wise Not to hold them together at times to advise?

Still able, still willing, they're dropped from the list With, "Out of the window now. You'll never be missed. The young men take over the business to run. We need you no longer. Get out and have fun!"

It is just a suggestion: When good men retire, Why not keep them enrolled, without hours, without hire? Why not form an alumni devoted and true, And keep them from thinking they're nothing to do?

Lincoln-Garfield Parent-Teachers Install Officers

Peter Grittle Jr., principal of the Lincoln-Garfield school, installed the new Parent-Teacher officers at the unit's recent meeting. The president is Mrs. Clyde Williams; vice president, Miss Emma Maxwell; secretary, Mrs. Albert Barletto; and treasurer, Mrs. John Zebataakis.

Preceding the business meeting, a delicious tureen dinner had been served in the school gym. Lovely spring flowers decorated the tables. Chairman of the affair was Mrs. Clyde Williams.

Business was conducted by the president, Miss Lillian Sarver who thanked the entire group for their cooperation during the year.

Miss Grace McCabe, program chairman, spoke on "Child Guidance" and the treatment of the mentally retarded child. The P.T.A. has had an excellent educational program this year due to the work of Miss McCabe.

A report of the work of the hospitality committee was given by Mrs. Clyde Williams. Mrs. L. Fusco outlined the various projects of the year. Mrs. Turner reported on the auditing of the books. A report of the City Council was presented by Miss Sarver, who stated that any member may attend these meetings.

Miss Emma Maxwell and Mrs. John Zebataakis, delegates to the P.T.A. convention held recently at Washington, Pa., reported on the meeting. Miss Maxwell spoke on "Government Spending" and the "Hoover Commission" as brought up at the convention. Mrs. Zebataakis reported on the social part of the affair and the films that were shown.

Principal Grittle then thanked Miss Sarver for her excellent work during the year. He mentioned the need of a new school and the lack of outside interest shown in the project.

The next meeting of the unit will be held in September.

and scenic vacation for Eastern dudes.

Great changes began with the development of the hydroelectric projects in the early 'thirties. The war enormously accelerated the tempo of change, bringing along with new industries a lot of new families who liked the looks of the country and settled down to stay.

Now your old-fashioned conservative is not averse to getting a dam or a river dredged in his district or his state when the pork barrel passes around. That is not against the rules.

But from the approach that draws government into a limited partnership for the large-scale development of resources, the conservative shies away with nervous haste. And it is just here that the New Deal-Fair Deal appeal has been so powerful in the West.

States long considered safely on the Republican side of the fence have been going Democratic in recent years. In rock-ribbed Republican Oregon, as the President took delight in pointing out, Democratic registration has for the first time in the history of the state exceeded Republican registration. And Oregon sends Wayne Morse, a Republican with little regard for the old taboos and slogans, to the Senate.

If there were more states where the choice was as clear as it is between Carroll and Tillie here in Colorado, the temptation to resort to McCarthyism would be negligible. And the irrelevant smear with its totalitarian overtones could not catch on.

baseball games than there were in 1886. I concede that. Perhaps that is progress.

There were strikes in 1886; there are bigger, longer, nastier strikes now. Is that progress?

Crazy men and women attacked, killed, committed suicide then; they are doing it now. I don't see much progress there.

Clothes, food and rents were cheaper. You may say that incomes were much lower and higher wages indicate progress. But how about taxes in those days compared to taxes today? In 1886 a man's income was his own. Today it is what the government leaves him.

I don't want to close this on a sour note.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Saving for independence is a sound American habit. U. S. savings bonds offer American investors, large and small, the security of an investment backed by their own government.

Initiating the investment and adding to it, is made convenient and simple through the payroll savings plan or the bond-a-month plan operated by the banks. The average yield of 2.9 per cent for 10 years is a very liberal return on the world's safest security.

A MULE KNOWS HIS CARROTS

Jenny mule may be pretty dumb but she knows what to eat. She can take care of herself pretty well even if she is dumb. She has to eat a lot of grass to get enough protein.

Protein is a very necessary article of food. Babies and children need it. Boys and girls need it. Old people need it.

A person needs one ounce of protein every day for each 50 pounds of his weight. If he weighs 150 pounds, he needs three ounces of protein.

Milk, meat, cheese and eggs are good providers of protein. It is perhaps better to eat too much protein than too little.

With fat it is the other way. Too much fat is never very good.

Robert L. Meermans, secretary of the New Castle YMCA, returned from Buffalo Sunday evening where he had been attending a meeting of the national YMCA council.

The national council heard Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl of Minnesota and George C. McGhee, assistant secretary of state, as feature speakers.

Youngdahl lauded the Y as a "living testimony of the ability of applied Christianity to create the true spirit of human brotherhood. A lively discussion on admitting women to the National council was tabled.

The policy making group passed a resolution calling for realistic recognition of the right of Negroes to full and "unrestricted Christian fellowship" in the YMCA. Mr. Meermans participated in the lively discussion that preceded the passing of the resolution. The centennial meeting of the YMCA in America will be held next year in Cleveland. More than 5,000 are expected to attend.

Eastern States Being Searched For Missing Girl

BROOKVILLE, Pa., May 22.—(INS)—The search continued in 13 eastern states today for a 28-month-old girl who was whisked from the home of her foster parents in Brookville by her mother and a male companion.

Police in 13 states have been alerted to pick up Junior Mackey of Diana, W. Va., for whom William McKnight, 11, Brookville justice of the peace, issued a warrant. State police reported little Shirley Ann Bednerik was taken from the home of Mrs. Josephine Litch Martz last Saturday by Mrs. Althea Shehan Bednerik of Hubbard, O., and Mackey. Mrs. Martz reportedly had begun adoption proceedings.

Police claimed conflicting descriptions of the getaway car, which witnesses said had Ohio license plates, have hampered their efforts to trace the couple.

Hickory P.T.A. Names Officers

Mrs. Leslie McCracken of Harlansburg installed the new officers of the Hickory township Parent-Teachers association at their final meeting of the year. James Dight will serve as president; Mrs. William Knight, vice president; Mrs. Fred Wettich, secretary, and Mrs. Ruth Pontius, treasurer.

Business was conducted by Mrs. William Knight, president, with Mrs. Arthur McCreary giving the secretary's report, and Ralph Watson the treasurer's report.

Mr. Watson announced that the "jungle jim," purchased by the P. T. A., has been installed at the Hickory Heights playground. He also stated that the play to be given by the dramatic club of the Second U. P. church in the East Brook school would be presented May 22 at eight o'clock.

Slides Shown
Mrs. Grace McCreary showed some slides on the projector that had been recently purchased for the school. Mrs. William Knight and Mrs. James Dight gave an interesting account of the recent southwestern district conference of P. T. A., held at Washington, Pa.

The evening's program was directed by Mrs. Robert McCrumb, with the band playing several selections. Ann McCreary sang a soprano solo, followed by a bass solo by Robert Dean. Ann McCreary, Helen Dean and Eleanor Patterson composed the girls' trio. Jerry Patterson entertained with a baritone solo and Eleanor Patterson sang an alto solo. The boys' quartet consisted of Bob Dean, Jerry Patterson, Tom Hanna and Chuck Sinutko. Rosalie McFarland accompanied the groups at the piano. The junior chorus sang two numbers, accompanied by Carol Chernyavski.

THIS MUST BE A FLYING DOUGHNUT

ABOUT ONCE A WEEK nowadays somebody comes up with another form of flying saucer. This one is the Lee-Richards "annular monoplane," a model of which is in the Science museum in London. Expansion Of Business In County Shown

Retail, wholesale and service establishments located in Lawrence county showed a substantial expansion in dollar volume of trade from 1939 to 1948, according to preliminary figures from the 1948 census of business released today by the bureau of the census, U. S. Department of Commerce.

Retail sales in the county during 1948 aggregated $86,800,000, an increase of 193 per cent over the $29,600,000 in 1939, when the preceding census of business was taken. Wholesale sales in the county reached a total of $31,500,000 in 1948, as compared with $12,100,000 in 1938. The service trades included in the census of business recorded receipts totaling $3,900,000 in 1948, compared with $1,300,000 in 1939.

Employment in the county also rose over the nine-year period between 1939 and 1948 for the above trades. Establishments in these trades reported a combined total of 5,960 paid employees for the work week ended nearest November 15, 1948. This compared with a total of 4,217 employees reported for the week of November 5, 1939.

These preliminary figures have been derived from a census report on Lawrence county, which also includes data for the city of New Castle and part of Ellwood City, located in Lawrence county. Final figures superseding the preliminary data for Lawrence county, will be included in a bulletin for the state of Pennsylvania to be issued in several months.

Number of retail establishments in the county in 1948 was 1,217, employing a total of 4,844 persons. There were 95 wholesale establishments with 610 employees and 506 persons in selected service trades. Three hundred and seventy-seven persons were hired by 48 hotel and amusement establishments.

Retail trades broken up show 689 in New Castle, 201 in Ellwood City and 327 in the remainder of the county. There were 72 wholesale establishments in New Castle, 10 in Ellwood City and 13 in the remainder of the county.

Pittsburgh Bus Strike Continues

PITTSBURGH, May 22.—(INS)—A four-day-old strike for higher wages today forced an estimated 450,000 Pittsburgh district bus riders to keep relying on emergency transportation.

Although federal and state mediators hope to achieve agreement which will permit resumption of service, while the controversies are settled, 800 AFL drivers and officials of six bus lines refused to change their position.

One of the struck lines granted an eight-cent hourly wage increase but five others indicated they will not permit the settlement to break their resistance.

Harmony bus line officials, whose firm was struck last May 2, are to meet with federal mediators Wednesday.

West Virginia River Boat Skipper Challenges Winner

PITTSBURGH, May 22.—(INS)—A West Virginia river boat skipper has challenged the United States Steel corporation's steamboat, "Homestead," to a river race boat, "next year's celebration of Welcome Week in Pittsburgh."

Captain Phil C. Eisey, a veteran of 47 years on Pittsburgh district rivers, who now makes his home in Huntington, W. Va., said he thinks more entries will make the race more exciting.

Saturday the Homestead won the big race from the Titan, which represented Jones & Laughlin Steel corporation, before an estimated 150,000 spectators. Titan supporters blamed a mysterious drop in steam for their second straight beating.

Question Man In Strangling Of Girl

Munitions Blast Takes Heavy Toll Among Relatives

SOUTH AMBOY, N. J., May 22.—(INS)—The munitions explosion in South Amboy Friday night took a heavy toll among the relatives of George Healing, head of the stevedoring firm which was loading the explosives on barges.

Listed today among the missing and presumed dead were:

Healing's son, Eugene; his brothers, Frank and William, and his cousins, Frank and John Rinn. George and Ray Ackerly, brothers, also were missing. Two of their brothers, Frank and Henry Ackerly, were killed in a munitions explosion which blew up the barge Catherine W. in the Hudson river in 1911.

In 1896, George Harpo and Frank Samuelson rowed from New York across the Atlantic to the Scilly isles, just off England, in 54 days.

The English game of cricket was played at Haverford, Pa., college as early as 1836.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Harry Casey tells of the lady who went to visit her young married daughter. Her new son-in-law was of a different faith, and though she accompanied the couple to their church on Sunday, she resolutely refused to join in the singing of hymns. "Why didn't you sing with us?" complained the daughter. "I know how proud you are of your voice."

"I just couldn't bring myself to do it," confessed the mother, and then blurted out, "I'm on another network."

One afternoon during the war, Herb Caen, the San Francisco columnist, noticed a taxi-driver in the lobby of a hotel dropping coin after coin into a pay telephone.

BRIDE'S CLOTHES AT GARDEN WEDDING

Question: Should a bride wear a veil or a hat at a garden wedding?

Answer: She is perfectly justified in wearing formal bridal attire, including a veil, or an afternoon dress and picture hat, depending upon her own desires.

Question: Kindly tell me what color suit a page should wear at an afternoon wedding?

Answer: The ring-bearer and pages may dress in modern or period costumes, depending upon the bride's wishes. If dressed in modern clothes, they should be white. Ask the bride's advice before you make your plans.

Question: I have a friend who is soon coming to town to visit a friend of hers whom I know slightly. I should like to invite the visitor to a party at my house. Must I also invite her host and hostess?

Answer: Yes, it is obligatory for you to invite the host and hostess if you invite their guest, especially so since you know them. Of course, if the visitor is very young and the host and hostess are middle-aged or older, you need not invite them, unless older people will also be present at the party.

Question: In accepting an invitation to a wedding, to whom should the envelope be addressed?

—Mrs. John Blank or Mr. and Mrs. John Blank?

Answer: To Mr. and Mrs. John Blank, if both of them issued the invitation. If it is informal, written by the bride, the reply should be addressed to her.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly send personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, addressed envelopes.

See Repudiation Of Plans For Joining Trade Organization

WASHINGTON, May 22.—(INS)—The House Foreign Affairs committee considered today formal repudiation of legislation authorizing United States participation in the International Trade Organization.

Participation in ITO is practically dead for this session of Congress, even should the House committee approve it. Chairman Connally (D) Tex., of the Senate Foreign Relations committee said last week that Senate consideration of participation was improbable.

Chairman Kee (D) W. Va., said his House group will probably take decisive action at a closed-door session this week. Public hearings were completed recently.

See indicated it was a toss-up whether the committee will approve United States membership in the 54-nation organization and adherence to the ITO charter.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

Birds, Bees and Flowers

I remember the occasion many years ago when my mother gathered the six of us around her and read to us from a book about birds, bees and flowers. Like other conscientious mothers of that period, she was trying to tell us where babies came from. But the idea didn't get across very well. We were mildly interested in the personal lives of our feathered friends, and in the flowers and the bees. But we didn't make the connection as far as humans were concerned.

Today, birds, bees and flowers play a less central part in helping children understand childbirth, the differences between boys and girls and other important "facts of life." Now, fortunately, mothers and fathers can get the kind of help that wasn't available to my mother. Such a book as Frances Strain's "New Patterns in Sex Teaching" gives very simple and direct suggestions as to what answers to give when children raise questions. And this new approach is beginning to tell. By the large, today's youngsters have far more wholesome attitudes toward the sex side of life than we did.

Successful Month At Neighborhood House Reported By Workers

Neighborhood House report for the past month, shows that the volunteer workers of the organization were kept exceptionally busy again during the period. The Misses Christine and Jean Butler, under whose direction the work is carried on reported that 52 home calls were made in connection with the work.

Two classes will be closing this month for the summer, including the Boys Club conducted by life service members from Westminster College and the Home Evangelism club. The boys club appreciated the work of the college students. The evangelism group conducted a quiz on the "Blood" their subject for the year. Five responded, accepting Christ as Savior.

Apron making is the final project of the sewing class. A small prize will be given the one doing the neatest work. Mrs. June Austria, one of the workers leads in the song service at the close of each class. Memory verses are taught each day. A member of the English class who was wed during the month interested the young people.

L. L. Members have done good work on their scrap books, enjoyed the memorizing of the Bible alphabet and temperance poems. The J. A. C. club work books are being filled with pledge of allegiance, pictures of Washington and Lincoln and articles about their lives. Other articles include, Landing of Pilgrims; Paul Revere's home, native birds, etc. Members of the Sunday school enjoyed a visit from Rev. James Begay, Navajo Indian. He interested all in his stories of his people and their need of the teachings of Jesus. Through the Indian March, the boys and girls gave eight dollars to the support of the work.

One social meeting was held during the month, a mother's day luncheon dinner for the mothers of the Neighborhood House children. Mrs. Nettie Peacock gave a Mother's Day talk. Mrs. Kenneth Lutz, teacher of the women's class, was in charge. Decision was made to organize a woman's prayer band when members would come to pray for their homes, the boys and girls and their neighbors. The meetings will be held at 7:30 o'clock each Monday evening in the Neighborhood House room. Mrs. Peacock will lead, with Bible study and prayer making up the program. Daily Vacation Bible school is planned from June 19 through June 30. The study will be "The Tabernacle" and the hours will be 2 to 4 each afternoon for two weeks. Miss Jean Butler will be in charge of the workers. During the month, two Bible, one New Testament and three Gospels of John were given out. Donors during the period included: The Book Shop, Highland U. P. Bible school; Rev. G. Fissell and Mrs. Ben Gardner's classes at Grace Bible church; two friends; Mrs. T. D. Allen, Mrs. W. W. Campbell of New Wilmington; D. A. R. members, First Baptist, Wilmadous, Miss Eva Lightner, Mahoning Methodist, W. S. C. S., Epworth Men's Bible class, Mrs. Luton and Mrs. Arble.

East Brook FFA Has Annual Tour; See Baseball Game

The East Brook Future Farmers made their annual tour Friday visiting the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station at Wooster, O., and at night attended the Cleveland-Boston baseball game at Cleveland.

Forty-five F.F.A. members made the trip with Ralph Watson, Supervising Principal at East Brook. George Zameskie and Hugh White, student teachers and the F.F.A. adviser, Howard F. Fox, accompanying the group.

Mr. Hummon, assistant director of the Experiment Station spent nearly three hours conducting the boys over the many experimental plots and through the buildings explaining the work that was being done. Many new methods and discoveries were explained to the boys, including some things that are as yet unpublished facts.

Soil fertility plots, plots with different pH or amounts of lime hog breeding programs, and new five year rotations were some of the outstanding experimental programs explained. The boys then spent some time going through barns and greenhouses. At the game in the evening, Bob Smith, East Brook F.F.A. member and ball player had the opportunity of catching Cleveland's Bob Kennedy's home run in the first inning. Smith was sitting in the seventh near the foul line.

Presbyterian Church Shows Large Growth

CINCINNATI, O., May 22.—(INS)—The Presbyterian Church in America boosted its membership roster an unprecedented 71,713 last year and now boasts 2,041,849 active church-goers.

Presbyterian churches also have added 114,000 new Sunday school members, according to a report submitted to the denomination's 162nd general assembly meeting in Cincinnati.

Dr. William Barrow Pugh of Philadelphia, stated clerk of the general assembly, compared the unprecedented increase with a gain of just 55,877 in 1948.

Dr. Pugh added that the surge of Presbyterianism also is reflected in a record registration last year of 1,858 prospective new clergymen enrolled as ministerial candidates. This is an increase of 500 over the total on 1945, he said.

YOU SHOULD KNOW

Everybody likes to talk and women are supposed to talk more than men. Perhaps we all do too much talking and not enough thinking. If all talk was constructive, that still won't be too bad; but there seems to be many people who enjoy trouble. Other people's troubles and passing these troubles along in their conversations. You know this kind of trouble. Broken homes, delinquent and neglected children, quarreling parents, et cetera.

These troubles do not become gossip when the cases are handled by the Catholic Welfare Council. They are kept confidential for all parties concerned by the Catholic Welfare Council, one of the 12 agencies in the New Castle Community Chest.

Accidental Shot Wounds Youth

James Cox, 18, of 213 Willard avenue, is in the Jameson Memorial hospital suffering from a bullet wound. His condition is not serious, according to hospital reports. He told police at the hospital where they were summoned, that he had cleaned a .22-caliber rifle, placed a cartridge in the chamber, and in some inexplicable manner the bullet was discharged, at 4:25 p. m. Saturday.

The missile entered the right side of his body below the last rib. He walked from a shanty where he was cleaning the rifle to nearby friends.

Frank Zuzow, 618 West North street, took him to the hospital.

DUTCH ELM DISEASE THREATENS LOCAL TREES

Dutch elm disease is present in Lawrence county. It has been found in two locations in the county. This disease has killed several trees and may effect many more. The disease is spread by bark beetles which carry it to healthy trees. For this reason all dead trees and branches should be completely destroyed by burning.

Spraying also offers a method of controlling the bark beetle. The spray material must be applied about May 15 to May 20 to be effective. Additional information on Dutch elm disease may be obtained from the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Bldg., New Castle, Pa.

SCREENED PORCH MAKES SUMMER LIVING GAY

For real summer enjoyment keep in mind the possibilities of a porch in your spring renovating plans. An enclosed porch can be a cooling-off spot for the hot, sticky days that are ahead.

It is fun and it is easy to fix up the porch for summer. When finished it is sure to be the most popular spot in the house. The first step in making the porch into a summer living room is to screen it. When this is done the porch will also double for a room where you serve snacks or light lunches.

For the porch furniture one may use inexpensive deck chairs, including a few of the reclining type; a sturdy table on which one can serve lunches; two or three low tables for smoking accessories, or books and magazines.

The homemaker may just want to give the porch furniture she has now a new coat of paint. New seats often perk up last year's casual chairs or lounge. Use gay, plastic-coated materials, bright cushions, awning cloth and plastics or cushions, chair pads, couch covers and table covers. Plan for some good reading lights that one may catch the day's headlines, and that heavenly breeze just before retiring.

HOW SAFE IS YOUR HOME?

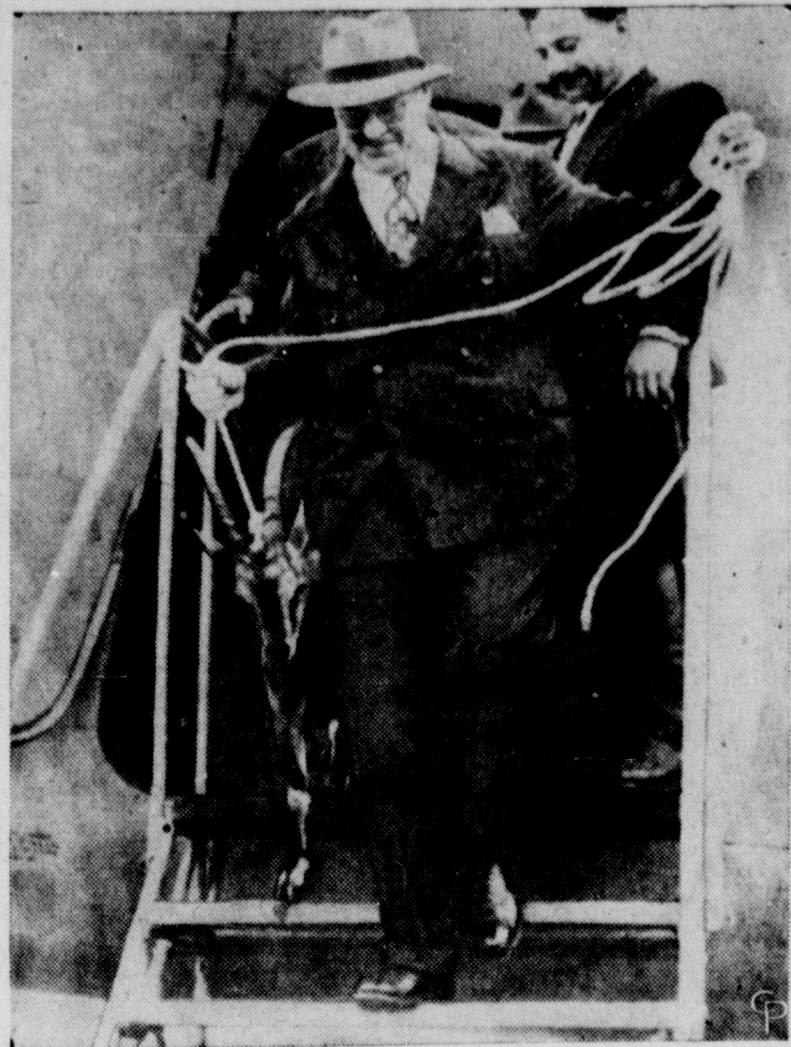

To avoid home accidents make sure your home is well ordered for safety. Keep stairs free of brooms, baskets and other things that might prove to be tripping or stumbling hazards. Remember your home is just as safe as you make it and your family are just as safe as your home. A publication, "Practice Safety at Home", may be had by requesting it from the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Building, New Castle, Pa.

ADOLESCENCE IMPORTANT PERIOD IN CHILD'S LIFE

Adolescence is the second period in the life span when children go through a spurt of growth. It is a period that is packed with surprises and changes both for the adolescent himself and for his parents.

Not all children enter adolescence at the same age, reminds Miss Marguerite Little, child care extension specialist of the Pennsylvania State college. Girls are younger than boys when they begin shooting up. Growth in height and weight are the most noticeable; however, muscles are developing and internal organs are enlarging. Not all growth of the different parts keep pace with each other. This may account for some of the apparently unexplainable things one sees in the adolescent.

Adolescence is the period when girls are passing from childhood into womanhood and boys into manhood. Changes are taking place in body structure, emotions and functional organs. These boys and girls themselves are baffled at the mixed feelings they have. They frequently do not know how to act in their new role, and seem at times to want to revert back to childhood and at other times they reach for more independence.

Parents too are confused. Miss Little points out. One time they may say, "John, you are big enough to take the responsibility for doing jobs without being continually reminded." Another time the same day they may say, "After all, you are only 14 years old and you didn't ask my permission first."

It is a case of these young folks striving to sever the apron strings and stand on their own feet, says Miss Little. They need guidance and encouragement to grow up to think for themselves. Adolescence is a difficult time for both adolescents and their parents; it's a time to practice more sympathetic understanding.

PLANT EVERGREEN COVERS IN HEAVILY SHADED AREAS

Evergreen ground covers provide good substitutes for grass in heavily shaded areas beneath trees and elsewhere. In such locations grass does not make a satisfactory growth, partly because of soil conditions, and the homeowners prefer a woody plant.

Evergreen plants common in nearly every landscape planting may be suitable for ground purposes. Terraces, rocky knolls, and steep banks usually demand a covering of some sort.

Among the best of the evergreen ground covers for covering a wide expanse of ground area are: Euonymus fortunei, the Evergreen Euonymus; Euonymus fortunei coloratus, the Purpleleaf Wintercreeper Euonymus; Hedera Helix, the Baltic English Ivy; Pachysandra terminalis, the Japanese Pachysandra; and Vinca minor Bowles, the Bowles Common Periwinkle. With the exception of the Baltic English Ivy all of these types will do well in sun or shade.

For more refined areas where a slower-growing plant is desired, the baby Wintercreeper Euonymus, Euonymus fortunei minimum and the Camby pachistima, Pachistima cambyi, are recommended. The Camby pachistima does best in partial shade. It is advisable to use the English Ivy only in the shade.

One of the interesting broad-leaf evergreen ground covers that will provide considerable flower in the middle of the summer is Hypericum calycinum, Aaronsbeard St. Johnswort. This plant will produce a mass of yellow flowers. It is not entirely top-hardy and usually it needs to be cut to the ground each spring but it develops fast and provides a good cover.

California's climate is widely diversified, ranging from temperate to subtropical.

Order Abatement Of Fairmont Ave. Cellar Excavation

Safety Director Richard I. Davis has ordered owners of a lot in Fairmont avenue between Albert and Carlisle streets to abate what Solicitor Robert E. White terms an "attractive nuisance" but which nearby residents call "Fairmont lake".

A cellar was excavated, and according to report, springs burst into being, with the result there is a depth of several feet of water—in which a small child, if the child fell, could drown.

The responsibility of a possible future accident, has now been put upon the owner of the property because the city has no control over private ground.

Members of the city police and fire departments today requested city council to grant them a 10 percent wage boost, because of the increased, and high cost of living.

The appeals were made by Sergeant G. C. Syling, for police, and John Oberleitner, for firemen.

Council referred the requests to committee.

SIGN OF PRESTIGE

In the early days of the American colonies, paint was a symbol of social prestige. The homes of a town's leading citizens could be recognized by their gleaming paint coatings. Tradespeople, as a matter of fact, were not supposed to distinguish their homes by the use of paint.

William Henry Harrison was the first President to die in the White House. He died April 4, 1841.

Gigantic Highland Carnival Has Big-Top Show Thrills

A carnival always seems to create a world of its own—a world where clowns and gaiety reign supreme.

The Highland avenue P.T.A. Carnival, held Saturday at Boyle's Field, corner of Highland avenue and Laurel boulevard, possessed all the thrills and grandeur of the colossal big-top shows that are staged. Children had the times of their lives, running here and there trying to see everything at once, their eyes growing bigger and bigger with each new feature of the affair.

Many Features

Both young and old were attracted to the novelty booths and concession stands, with bean and the fish pond proving to be old favorites of the crowd. Children of the Highland school had made several novelties for the carnival. A band concert was a special feature during the later hours. Youngsters waited eagerly for rides on the lively ponies.

What would a carnival be without its clowns? DeLace Cole was very much the sophisticate in his lovely black dress and hat. The booths had their attractions, but what person could miss seeing the beautiful blonde curls of the bobby-soxer William Twaddle or the antics of the teen-age boy, Lewis Pearsall?

During the early hours of the evening, the New Castle Fire department, under the direction of Chief Herman Steinbrink, staged an excellent exhibition with our local fire-fighting equipment. The men demonstrated the use of the old and new aerial ladders. The crowd saw just how quickly people can be evacuated from a burning building. An oil and gasoline fire was made, and extinguished by the modern fire-fighting apparatus, the fog-nozzle.

Movies Shown

Several movies were later shown in the Highland school, and all the fun of an old-fashioned square dance was enjoyed in the school's gym.

Several committees, teachers of the school, and volunteer workers are responsible for the success of the carnival. Lawrence Perelman was general chairman of the project; Louis Hazen, concession

War On Pigeons To Start In City

If pigeons could understand human talk, they would be all a-flutter this afternoon, because—Safety Director Dick Davis is after 'em; that is, property-owners soon will get after 'em, with Dick's assistance.

In council, at city hall today, he introduced a resolution, which in brief follows:

Pigeons have become a nuisance. They habitually occupy some structures.

However, he believes there are certain materials which can clutch them by their feet, and hold 'em tight, until they are bagged; in fact, apprehended.

Hence, he got council's permission to allow fire ladders to be used to catch the pigeons, the property-owners being willing to identify the loss against breakage, and injury to firemen.

British Amateur Gets Under Way

By THOMAS C. WATSON (International News Service Sports Writer)

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 22.—(INS)—Billy Goodloe, of Valdosta, Ga., started America toward a possible victory in the British Amateur Golf championship today by winning a 4-1 round match from Sir John Hartopp, a little known British player.

Goodloe was among the first of some 30 Americans to tee off in a record-breaking field seeking to dethrone Irish Max McCready, the defending title-holder.

Crosby On Hand

Play began in the hallowed golfing fixture in weather that seemed to favor the Briton's chances, although the stars of the heavy American contingent were heavily backed to provide one and perhaps both finalists in Saturday's concluding 36 holes.

Crooner Bing Crosby, flashily attired and happily confident, was among the early starters and won the first hole of his match by scoring a birdie three against Jimmy Wilton, a local player.

Wisconsin was the first state in the Union to adopt an unemployment compensation act.

At 3:45 a. m. Sunday, B truck from Central station was called to the Watter's Service Station on North Jefferson street, where a short had occurred in an auto parked there. Damage of around $10 was done.

At 7:37 p. m., Saturday, 8 truck company was called to 1216 East Washington street, by faulty wiring in the auto of M. Linington. The damage was slight.

New Probe Of Amerasia Case Now Demanded

WASHINGTON, May 22.—(INS)—A fresh demand was thrown to congress today to investigate in public hearings how Amerasia magazine got hold of 3,000 supposedly-secret state department documents.

The demand was made by Senator Capehart (R) Ind., on the heels of disclosures by Frank Bielaski, who made the original raid on the magazine offices, that in all he found 3,000 stolen documents. Capehart asserted:

Ought To Be Reopened

"The whole case ought to be opened up again, not only in the courts but in congress, where public hearings should be held. There must be an end to hush-hush and pussyfooting. The people are entitled to know how such documents could be obtained and who is responsible."

Meanwhile, Vice President Barkley was expected to rule today on which senate committee shall conduct a proposed investigation of sex perverts in government.

Democratic senators said the inquiry almost certainly will go to the executive expenditures committee, but that Sen. McCarthy ("") Wis., its ranking GOP member, probably will not be included on the investigating group.

NAVY ROCKET SETS RECORD IN PACIFIC

NEW HEIGHT RECORD of 106.4 miles for American designed, single stage rockets is set as Navy's research rocket Viking is launched from platform on stern of the Norton Sound, stationed on the equator in mid-Pacific. The 1,000-pound, 46-foot missile carried 900 pounds of electronic gear in nose, which sent back messages to scientists. As result of extremely low temperature of liquid oxygen fuel and high humidity of equatorial air, frost and ice formed on the rocket's housing, and was turned into steam clouds as missile roared skyward. The Norton Sound is Navy's floating experimental laboratory. (International)

Final adjustments made on Viking's nose.

Smoke, steam clouds accompany launching.

Autoist Reports He Was Attacked In Croton Avenue

V. L. Post, R. D. 4, was assaulted at midnight, last night in Croton avenue, near Cascade street, by a young man who opened the door of the car driven by Mr. Post's son, Joseph, and who struck V. L. Post in the eye. Justice of the Peace Keyes, R. D. 4, with another man, was in Mr. Post's car.

According to a report at police headquarters, Mr. Post had been to the Cleveland-Indians baseball game in Cleveland. His son was driving Mr. Post, Mr. Keyes and the other man in Croton avenue toward their R. D. 4 home.

Near Cascade street, their car got behind a group of approximately 25 men who wore white caps and carried a "Joe DiMaggio" sign. Mr. Post said his son sounded the horn so the auto could pass the group, because other cars were behind Mr. Post's auto. When Joseph Post stopped the car, it was surrounded by a group of men.

One young man, with curly, light hair, and who wore no white cap, opened the door of the Post car, reached in then struck Mr. Post in the eye.

Policemen D'Ambrosia and H. L. Richards replied to the call but could not find the assailant of Mr. Post.

Miss Truman's Plans For Summer Secret

NEW YORK, May 22.—(INS)—Margaret Truman's sudden cancellation of her summer concert engagements was said today to be due to the fact that "she will not be in the eastern part of the country." Mildred Shagal, secretary of Miss Truman's agent, James Davidson, said the President's daughter "will be unable to be in the east" where she was scheduled to sing with the Philadelphia orchestra July 27 and with the New York Philharmonic orchestra July 31. But the secretary said she was not "at liberty" to disclose where Miss Truman will be.

J. J. ALEXANDER
YES MANAGER

"Fresh starts for sale!"

My job is to make loans to local people. I like to say YES and do say YES to 4 out of 5 who come to me for a loan. Yet I can't help feeling that my most important job is getting people out of debt—selling fresh starts.

Take the young couple who came to see me only last week. The husband was making good money. Yet they couldn't seem to make ends meet. They wanted a loan of $50 until payday.

With their permission, I went over their income and expenses on a worksheet* my company has just published. In 10 minutes, we'd spotted the trouble. Their monthly installment payments were just too high. After meeting them, they didn't have enough money to handle their regular monthly expenses. I lent them the cash to pay these accounts in full. Now they're repaying Personal—in monthly amounts that fit their income. They are happy with their fresh start.

Now I don't claim a loan is always the answer to a money problem. When it is, I say "yes" promptly. You also get the benefit of my years of experience with family budgets. If you can use either money or this free counsel, don't hesitate to see me. Come in to the Personal Finance Co.—or phone, today.

*You can get this worksheet, "X-Ray Booklet" without cost or obligation. Simply come in, or send a postcard.

Senators-Tigers In Final Series Game Tonight, Booster Game Tuesday

Senators Fail To Pick Up Ground; Split Saturday

New Castle's front-running Senators failed to gain an inch over the weekend in their battle to stay atop the Mid-Atlantic heap. Saturday night the Senators looked like champions as Stan Zedalis set down the Butler Tigers in the first game on a steady nine-hitter, 12-4. But in the second game the Tigers clubbed Janaco for two homers in the first inning and went ahead to win 11 to 4.

Oil City split two with Johnstown over the weekend, losing Saturday 9-8 and winning yesterday 8-7. New Castle leads today by a half game.

End Series Tonight
The Senators will engage Butler here again tonight in the final game of the three-game series, the contest billed for an 8 o'clock start. Manager Chuck Cronin has nominated George Becka the right-hander to try for his third win of the year against no defeats. Zedalis notched his third win Saturday against one defeat.

Tuesday evening the Johnstown Johnnies move in for a three-game series, the game tomorrow night being billed as "Booster The Senators Night" with surprises, music and other interesting features.

Kiel Hits Fourth Homer
About the only thing the local fans had to cheer about in the nightcap Saturday was the fourth home run of the year Herman Kiel pasted over the left field wall with the sacks empty. New Castle put together four hits, a double by Tommy Famiglietti and singles by Dunterman, Eikenberg and Churchill, for three runs in the fourth inning, and otherwise were handcuffed by Danny Haven on 10 hits all told, never more than one in any one inning other than the fourth.

Butler used three hurlers in the first game, Mostak, Pelot and Knabe, and New Castle found them all easy to hit, with 14 singles, Kiel leading with three. New Castle retaliated with three hurlers for 17 hits, two homers, three doubles, all by Bob Adcock, and a triple by Red Frazier. Danny Dondero and George Eikenberg, with two hits apiece, led the Senators in the second game.

Need Pitching Help
Butler had 26 hits in the two games, the Senators 24. Both teams definitely need pitching help to stay in the first division very long.

There were 12 errors in the two games, Butler having seven, New Castle five, not very good defensive baseball.

The Senators must win tonight or surrender the league lead, providing the Oil City Refiners down Johnstown. Butler could make a very tight first place race out of it by winning here tonight. The Tigers are only a game and a half off the pace.

Present Watch To Joe

Between halves of the games yesterday Scarazzo and other New Castle men stepped to home plate and presented DiMaggio with a gold wrist watch from his New Castle admirers.

In a short acceptance speech, DiMaggio said that he would like to visit New Castle sometime and give the Senators a boost. He thanked the New Castle men for the fine gift.

The famous New Castle Red Coat band made a tremendous hit with the over 80,000 fans at the game, with many stirring tunes as they paraded the field, most of the afternoon.

It was a tired by happy crowd, that stepped off the special train here last evening, after seeing their favorites in action, the Cleveland fans being just a little bit disheartened by the double defeat by those football scores.

Grove City Wins

Tri-State Track; Titans Are Third

Grove City College walked away with the Tri-State Association track meet at Meadville, Saturday, rolling up 49 points. Allegheny was second with 30 1/2 points and Westminster College came in third with 28 points.

Ned Hamilton gave the Groves two first places in the broad jump and pole vault and contributed to the mile relay victory which set a new tri-state and field record of 3:30.3.

The Groves picked up a first in 440-yard dash as Baughman set a new tri-state record of :51.0, and won the 880-yard dash as Hettish finished at 2:01.9.

Art Jones, Westminster speedster, raced home first in the 220-yard dash to set a new field and district record at 22.1. Dick Bloom cut 19 seconds off the existing field record to give the Titans a victory in the two mile run at 10:27.6.

The Titans' other win came in the high jump where Dick Paul finished with a 5'9" height.

Competition for runner-up position in the meet depended upon results of the final event of the day—the broad jump. Allegheny's second and fourth place in this event pushed them ahead of Westminster. Carnegie Tech finished in fourth place with 26 1/2 points. Slippery Rock had 26 1/2, Bethany 24 1/2, Washington and Jefferson 24 and Geneva 15 1/2.

BOMBERS TO PRACTICE

A LITTLE WEIGHT GOES A LONG WAY

CLEVELAND, Ohio.—"My son, John . . . one shoe off and one shoe on" is an old rhyme that goes well for Dick Jones, a University of Oklahoma, sophomore from Lakewood, Ohio. Jones' coach that the boy was running too fast and promptly slowed him down by having him wear a shoe on one foot, his take-off foot. Since then, Jones has made 6 feet, 5 1/2 inches, a jump that is but 2 and three-fourth inches from the best record in the nation.

New Castle Fans Present Joe DiMaggio With Watch

A special train over the Pennsy lines yesterday carried 1,700 New Castle fans to the Cleveland Stadium for the Indians-Yankees double-bill.

The New Castle contingent helped to swell the crowd yesterday at the Lakewood playground to over 80,000 fans. Among the New Castle interested spectators were the members of the New Castle Senators baseball team, guests of President Al Scarazzo of the Citizens Baseball Inc.

The Senators were thrilled by the spectacle of seeing the great Joe DiMaggio hit two homers, one a bases-full slam into the upper tier in left field.

Canes Scoreless In WPIAL Meet

New Castle high track team failed to score in the WPIAL meet at Canonsburg Saturday.

The event marked the completion of all inter-scholastic sports for the 1949-50 term.

The Canes' strength throughout the season had been based on team balance rather than individual scorers and this did not permit a very good showing at the district meet. However the coaches were pleased at the outcome of the season and feel that they will have some very good material returning for next year. This season's squad was badly depleted by graduating but made a good comeback.

New York Yankees Trounce Indians Twice 14-5, 12-4

By HOWARD SIGMUND (International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, May 22.—Who said there's no place like home?

Look at the New York Yankees. The world champions have won six straight. They lead the American League by two and a half games and are looking better all the time.

And where are they accomplishing all this? Out in the big, bad west, of course.

Nearly 80,000 baseball-hungry fans jammed Cleveland's municipal stadium yesterday and watched the Bombers humiliate the Indians twice, 14 to 5 and 12 to 4.

Joe Hits Two

And all those things the fans had been reading about a slumping Joe DiMaggio were disproved by the Clipper. The big guy hit two homers in the first game—one a grand slammer—and had eight runs batted in for the day.

Ray Murray and Joe Gordon homered off winner Ed Lopat, but Casey Stengel probably would have won if

HERE and THERE • IN SPORTS LAND

NO ONE SEEMS TO DOUBT, in a Jimmy Powers article in Sport, that Ted Williams could top 400 again, but he probably won't and for good reason. Ted himself sums it up in one sentence, "Shifts or no shifts, I'll always shoot for the fence!"

Ted mentions a few other handicaps such as improved pitching, boys on the mound who play percentages when Williams is at bat, and night baseball sandwiched into tight schedules. Rogers Hornsby, Nap Lajoie and Bill McKechnie discount Ted's predictions as "a lot of baloney."

McKechnie thinks the only trouble is that the Red Soxer has too good an eye; he'll never go for the ball that passes the plate a fraction of an inch outside. You walk instead of hit with that kind of judgment, says Bill. Lajoie thinks he might do it in spite of himself with any luck. Hornsby snorted in positive indignation. "Williams, if he wants to stop trying to blast down all those players in the shift, can hit .434 or .444!"

Ted shrugs off the speculation with the reminder that it is the fans who want the long ball, not statistics. "Babe Ruth, none of them, could go for both—a 400 average and the home runs... confidentially," says Ted. "I'm expected to explode."

This is hiking time and those who love to walk and drink in nature in all its beauty, should visit Gaston park which Owen Fox, City forester, has in good condition. There are thousands of trees, both old and young in the park. A stream flows through the acreage which also have facilities for basket dinners. Shelters are placed at vantage points. Driving of cars through the park is prohibited. Another park, Cascade, is also a scene of beauty. Building are being painted and the municipal recreation and amusement center will open May 30. Mac Speedie, Cleveland Browns' end has signed to play his fifth season with the McBridge. Tom Clavin, Villanova fullback, has also signed to play with the Browns this fall. According to a report, several arrests were made by fish wardens for taking game fish out of season. There have been some splendid games in the City Baseball league. Games are drawing nice crowds.

Hill Prince Wins Preakness

By CHARLES EINHORN

(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, May 22.—Eddie Arcaro says Hill Prince is the best three-year-old colt of 1950, and after Saturday's $75,615 Preakness at Pimlico, anybody who wishes to argue that point will find space reserved at the nearest sanitarium. "I wasn't so much what Hill Prince did at the historic Baltimore track as 'twas the way he did it. Christopher Chenery's hand—some bay colt won the Preakness by five galloping lengths the rest of the six-horse field strung out almost as far as the eye could see."

Belmont Next

The June 10 Belmont stands as the final gem in racing's triple crown, which no one will win this year, Middlebrook having ached the Derby and Hill Prince the Preakness.

Furthermore, there doesn't seem to be anything around that can catch Hill Prince these days. True, the Belmont is routed at a forbidding mile-and-a-half. But, as Jockey Boland said after finishing second on Middlebrook in the Preakness, "it could have gone five miles. Wasn't anybody going to catch that horse?"

Sammy Snead Wins Western Golf Title

LOS ANGELES, May 22.—(INS)

—Samuel Jackson Snead packed his golf sticks and money bag to-day and headed for Albuquerque, N. M., with the crown of the Western Golf Association open championship which he won for the second straight year.

The sweet swinging stylist from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., pocketed a check for $2,600 yesterday after turning in the winning score, two under par 282 for the 72-hole test.

Snead's score was one stroke better than the cards turned in by E. J. Dutch Harrison of St. Andrews, Ill., and Jim Ferrier of San Francisco.

Seven More Drivers

Qualify For Grind

INDIANAPOLIS, May 22.—(INS)—Only 11 starting positions remained open today for potential qualifiers in the 500-mile Memorial Day Speedway Race at Indianapolis.

Seven more cars qualified Sunday, bringing the total approved to 22. Only five qualifiers have failed to maintain an average speed of 130mph or better over the 10-mile tryout.

Newly eligible pilots are Myron Fohr, Milwaukee, Wis.; Bayless Levrett, Glendale, Cal.; Dick Rathman, Alhambra, Cal.; Paul Russo, Kenosha, Wis.; Walt Brown, Massapequa, Long Island, N. Y.; Henry Burns, Compton, Cal., and Cliff Griffith, Indianapolis.

McGill P. T. A. Has Evening Program

Members of the Arthur McGill Parent-Teachers' Association met Thursday evening at the school auditorium. Highlighting the evening was a baked goods and white elephant sale. Edwin O. Feass was on the job as auctioneer, assisted by David P. McBride, William Emley and Mrs. John P. Byers.

The SPEBSQSA was a special feature of the event. The group sang several of the old-time songs in the barber shop manner. They promised to return in the fall to sing at another meeting of the unit.

The president, Mrs. Sam Perry Jr., and her committees are to be commended for the success of the entertaining evening program.
